Standard Complaints Handling and Dispute Resolution Procedure

ERM Power recognises that while we strive for operational excellence and providing an exceptional customer experience, from time to time, you may be dissatisfied with our performance. On those occasions where you are dissatisfied, we want you to tell us. We are committed to being responsive to your needs and to resolving any concerns or complaints you may have. While we don't receive many complaints, we hope that your complaint may in fact make us an even better energy partner to your business. We're not perfect, but we do strive to be so in all that we do.

What you can expect?

We are here to help you. As a valued customer, we value your enquiry and will attempt to resolve any concern or complaint you may have as promptly as possible.

ERM Power is committed to continuously improving our service and ensuring our performance meets your needs.

Our Standard Complaint Handling and Dispute Resolution Procedure conforms to Standards Australia ISO 10002-2006 Customer Satisfaction - Guidelines for Complaints Handling in Organisations. ERM Power staff and contractors are committed to ensuring that complaints are resolved in accordance with this Standard.

Our complaint handling procedure ensures that if you ever need to register a concern or make a complaint:

- That you will know exactly where and how you can contact us;
- That we provide you with assistance to register your concern or make your complaint, if requested;
- That your complaint will be addressed quickly, fairly, and in an objective and unbiased way;
- That your complaint will remain private and confidential;
- That we will always keep you informed regarding our progress when investigating your concern or complaint;
- That you will always have the option to escalate your concern or complaint to more senior staff within ERM Power, or to the relevant Ombudsman;
- That we will not charge any fees for investigating and resolving your concern or complaint.

We will also seek your feedback on our complaints handling procedure to ensure that we continue to meet your business needs.

What We Need to Help You

We want our customers to be highly satisfied, so we will help you through what we need to resolve your concern or complaint.

We have implemented systems to guide our staff to identify a complaint and to ensure that all the relevant information we need to resolve your complaint is recorded when you contact us.

First, it is important that we can accurately identify you as our valued customer. If you contact us, your ERM Power Account Number, Invoice Number, Supply Address or National Metering Number (NMI) are all helpful pieces of information.

Second, it's important that we understand your concern or complaint, as well as the resolution that you are seeking.

Finally, we will agree with you what else we might need to help you and, importantly, to agree how and when to contact you on resolving your concern or complaint.

How Long Will It Take to Resolve A Complaint?

We expect to resolve most complaints when you initially make contact with us. If the matter is complex we may need up to 14 calendar days to fully investigate the matter.

In some cases, it may take longer to resolve your complaint. If that situation arises, the person responsible for managing your complaint will let you know and keep you informed during the process, either in writing or by telephone. It will not be a surprise.

Once we believe we have a resolution to your complaint, we will communicate this resolution to you. You can then let us know if this does not address your concerns. If we don't hear from you within 10 calendar days, we will consider the complaint closed.
